History
LADAS was a British bark built by Ritson & Co at Maryport in 1894 and named after a racehorse that won the Derby. LADAS was the most well known and fastest of three sister ships. The vessel was commanded by Captain Tom Messenger on its maiden voyage, traveling from Maryport to Corral, Chile and then on to Newcastle, Australia. LADAS was active between the years of 1914 and 1918, before it was sold to Norwegian interests and broken up in 1921.
