

Basic Detail Report

ANMS0227[089]

Title

House and church, South Africa

Date

1899-1902

Medium

Silver gelatin print

Dimensions

Overall: 81 x 107 mm

Name

Photograph

History

The second Boer War began in 1899 after the Boer residents and the British once again escalated in South Africa. The war continued until May 1902 and although Britain claimed victory and the Boers became British subjects, it was an uneasy peace and in nine years South Africa would become self-governing.